7) Resume of Cabinet Meeting dated June 6, 2024.

The preamble is as follows:-

On the basis of the 123 non-subsidy principles of Class A, run by Government recognized private institutions.

Governance on grant-based accreditation of residential/non-residential schools/workshops for the disabled

The decision was issued on 08.04.2015 with the approval of the Cabinet of Ministers.

Governing Decision adopted at the meeting of the Committee of Secretaries on 16.10.2018

As of 06.11.2018, 121 of the above schools/workshops have been subject to certain conditions.

Approval was granted.

Government Decision dated 08.04.2015 Some schools/workshops were approved by the Ministry of Finance and the High-Level Secretariat Committee before the meeting of the High-Level Secretary Committee and some schools/workshops were approved by the then Minister of Finance MRM after the meeting.

In all these cases, the salary costs of the post will be increased as the number of students increases.

In addition, the government will have a financial burden on the students in terms of nutrition grants and other facilities.

Prior to issuance, approval from the Finance Department was required. Rule dated 08.04.2015

Out of the 123 schools accredited on the basis of grants, 121 schools/workshops have been approved under the decision.

High-level Committee of Secretaries chaired by H.E.M. Chief Secretary on 16.10.2018

A total of 2464 posts were approved at the meeting.

However, due to the increasing number of students, there is no increase in the number of posts.

If such cases were investigated at the department level, there would be a total of 16 cases of increased student enrollment.

The Government Clearing Paper was issued but it was found that no additional posts were given accordingly.

The above 16 cases have been discharged with the approval of the then Minister.

There is a growing number of students who are not getting jobs due to the increase in the number of posts given by the Government Certificates.

The enterprises have filed RIT petitions in the Benches of the High Court.

Accordingly, Ma. High Court, Bench Aurangabad 1 contempt petition No. 11/ 2021,

Ghalale Education Broadcasting Board, Dhanora (Khu), T. Ambajogai, G. Bid and Others, 2) Insult petition No.188/2023 - Jagjaheer Education Broadcasting Board, Nanded, 3) Abman Petition No. 64/2024 Baba Saheb

Paranjpe Instana, Ambejogai T. Ambejogai, G. Bead and others as well as Ma. High Court, bench in Mumbai

8) The contempt petition No.398/2022 has been filed by the Ajinkya Foundation.

Since the Governing Decision on the Granting of Head 123 Schools/Workshops on Subsidy Principles was issued by the Cabinet of Ministers on 8.04.2015, the Governing Decision required the approval of the Cabinet of Ministers when issuing the Certificate of Increase in Number of Students. Sub, Head 16 Schools/Workshops were granted additional posts on Increase in Number of Students.

Government decision:

M. Government Decree issued by Cabinet Resolution dated April 8, 2015

On the basis of the 123 non-subsidy principles of Class A, run by Government recognized private institutions.

Distinguished residential/non-residential schools/workshops for persons with disabilities were approved on a grant basis.

The Governing Decision was issued on 08.04.2015.

The Governing Decision was adopted by the Committee in accordance with the approval given at its meeting on 16.10.2018.

In addition, 121 of the participating schools/workshops are subject to certain conditions according to the number of students.

A total of 2464 permitted posts were approved after the Government decision dated 08.04.2015.
